An obituary published in The Daily Journal, Vol 15, No. 50, Freeport, IL

County Cullings, Winslow

Winslow, March 6 - Orson Hunt died Monday evening at 7 o'clock. He had been sick only a few days and refused to have a physician called until Monday morning, when it was too late. At present writing the cause of his death is unknow. The funeral will probably be held Wednesday or Thursday.

The 1850 census of Rodman, Jefferson Co., NY and the 1880 census of Winslow, Stephenson Co., IL also give his birthplace as MA. The 1860 census of Stephenson Co., IL gives it as NY. Research to positively establish his parentry has been unsuccessful.

A search of printed genealogies by Lawrence Zuehlke has established a possible connection in the book, Genealogy of the Hunt Family by T. B. Wyman, Jr., Boston: John Wilson & Son, 1862-3. On page 357 covering miscellaneous branches of the family HUNT of LongMeadow-

Mr. Hunt was of Monson, and age stated 52 in 1851.

On page 363 of the same book is the following entry:

A copy of the birth record from town of Longmeadow, Hampden Co. ,MA reads:

Vol 1 pg 62 No. 8 Year 1826

Search of the records of Willard Hunt has not further established his connection to Orson Hunt of Rodman, NY or Winslow, IL. For further information concerning this family see Appendix

Thru census, newspaper, county histories and family records we have been able to establish some of the descendants of Orson and Sophia HUNT. Of their personal life we wish we knew more. Many of the hardships they faced is told in the history of the frontier settlement of our nation. It is further expressed in the obituary of Sophia Hunt which reads:

Sophia Augusta Vaughn was born at Clayton, Jefferson Co., New York, March 9th, 1828, and departed this life January 20th, 1919, aged 90 years, 10 months and 11 days. She was united in marriage with Orson Elijah Hunt, Sept. 11th, 1845, at Rodman, N. Y., where they resided until May 1854. Mr. Hunt departed this life March 6, 1893.

To this union there were born 9 children, 7 of whom are still living. Mr. and Mrs. Hunt were of the early pioneers of Winslow township, coming here in the spring of 1854. She has lived continuously in this township for 65 years, having witnessed the remarkable progress and development of the country. She heard the howl of the wolf and coyote, the stealthy tread of the bounding deer, and saw the Indian trail of the prairie give place to the sturdy homesteader and the public highway, also the passing of the crude sickle, the cradle and ox-team to the present motor tractor and buzzing auto, and the many inventions that seemed almost impossible 90 years ago - she has seen them become a reality.

She knew something of the privations, self denial and economy of the early days; her life was spent principally on the farm devoid the many modern inventions that made farm life a thing to be desired. A mother of 9 children - many a night she kept a lone watch by the side of the suffering ones and ministered as best she could to their needs, for she loved her children. Think of the years of hard toil, the ministry of the hands, the service she gave in the home for the welfare, happiness and comfort of her children. She gave her best - Love. The home was her realm and to these occupants there will rise before them the star of kindness, goodness called - Mother. They will be able to say: "I've looked on hands whose form and hue, a sculptor's dream might be; yet are my mother's wrinkled hands more beautiful to me."

Mrs. Hunt was able to be about and help in the home until very recently, when she laid down quietly and consciously fell asleep to awake in God's spiritual universe.

She leaves besides her seven children, thirty-nine grandchildren, sixty- great grandchildren, besides many relatives and friends who will miss her...

Funeral services were held on Friday afternoon and interment was made in Rock Lily cemetery.

The legal description of the property of Orson Hunt in Winslow is given in the Inventory of his estate - Box 111 Stephenson Co., Ill., which reads:

80 acres located W $\frac{1}{2}$ SW $\frac{1}{2}$ of Sec. 28, Twp 29, N Range 6, E of 4PM containing dwelling house, granary & stable, valued at \$3200

A further inventory of his estate indicates he had acquired some of the tools of farming - listings included a back eye binder, a mower, a hay rack and fork, a riding plow, and a top buggy. There were 2300 bushels of oats in the granary. Among the livestock were 5 - 2 yr old steers, 1 bull 3 yrs old, 6 cows, 4 - 2 yr old Heefers, and 8 horses. The value of the may numerous listings of this chattel property was given as $120.

Of Orsons' personal habits we know very little. It was remembered that he "drank" quite heavily. The mention in his obituary that he refused medical attention until too late would probably indicate that he was the ruling force in his home. Family sentiment has been passed down with the generations that the love and affection of the children for the mother expressed in the obituary was real and not just the flowery expression of the time.

In the following genealogy of their descendants , we have attempted to trace both male and female lines. The information we have is far from complete. Primarily we have traced the families of son William Orson Hunt and the daughter Sarah Jane Hunt from which we are descendants. Hopefully someday additonal information may be added.

William Orson Hunt was born January 22, 1849 at Rodman Village, Jefferson Co., New York, and was one of nine children to be born to Orson Elijah Hunt and Sophia A. Vaughn. In May 1854 the family moved to Winslow, Illinois. He, and his four brothers and four sisters, spent their early years on the family farm there.

When he was nineteen years old, William married Elizabeth Daniels of neighboring Lafayette Co., Wisconsin. During the first years of their marriage they located and relocated many times. Their first child, Almina, was born in Missouri where they remained for about a year and half. They then returned to Illinois where their sons Valson and George were born. Gertie and Daisey were born in Wisconsin where they remained about six years. The remaining children were born in Iowa where they lived for about 23 years.

In 1901 they decided to move to Minnesota, but within a 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ decided to go on to North Dakota. William's brother Levi and son George accompanied him. Wm homesteaded the southeast quarter of section 28 - township 136 north of range 83 - west of fifthe prime meridan at Flasher, North Dakota. His first home there was a sod cabin. He followed this with a well and a stone granary. Later he replaced the sod cabin with a frame house.

In subsequent years, his sons Sidney and Rollo, took up adjoining homesteads northeast of Flasher. His daughter Grace, married Andrew Taylor in 1906 and homesteaded south of Flasher. In 1909, his daughter Daisey Leonard, with son Levi, and daughters Lucy and Certie, took a homestead adjoining her father. The daughter Almina remained in Iowa and son Valson in Minnesota.

The family maintained close ties. This was the age when large families were no burden. They all worked hard and shared the harvest of their labors. They weathered North Dakota dust storms and the battle with grasshoppers. North Dakota was now their home.

Some of the little things remembered by his Grandsons' Levi Leonard wife Brenda were

1. The advent of his new threasing machine with which Grandpa did threashing for his neighbors and was paid.

2. The cave in at the coal mine where Levis' Uncle Georges leg was injured - Grandma Hunt had said she wasn't surprised - she had spiritual knockings on the head of the bed the night before he was born.

3. Dentists wern't plentiful, near at hand, or was there much money - Grandpa and Grandma both lost all of their teeth. Their gums became very hard and they could eat about anything. They both loved to chew gum - large wads of it.

4. Grandma had skin cancer removed from her lip in 1918 and nose about 1922. The resultant scar to her lip was about like hare lip surgery.

5. Like most parents they had their favorites - Grandpa being partial to Daisey and Grandma to George. Rollo, the baby, fought with his Dad about a lot of things, but got along well with his fathers brother Levi: Grace and her husband Andrew were probably the most refined and social of the family. They were always very close to the church and each other. Grandma had trouble getting along with son Sids first wife Maud, who always spoke rather hateful about Grandpa. Both Grandpa and Grandma were very good to Levi and Brenda, who lived with them the first two years after their marriage.

William Hunt continued to live on his homestead until 1930, when he moved in with his son George until his death March 17, 1932. He had been sick about 2 weeks and death was not unexpected. However death did not come as reported in the flowery obituary of his time. He was not a religious man extolling praises to God, or was there a wave of his hand to his family. The family was gathered in the kitchen and they made frequent trips to his bedside to check on him, and it was on one of these trips that they discovered he had passed away. His wife Elizabeth, then moved to Flasher to be with her daughter, Daisey Leonard House. She remained there until her death April 12, 1935.

Levi William Leonard

Compiled by his daughter Alice Leonard Vogelsang from information related by his wife Brenda Partridge Leonard and his sister Gertrude Hancock in 1972-73.

Levi Leonard was born Nov. 19, 1894 (a) in Maynard, Iowa. He was the 1st child of Francis Marion Leonard and Daisey Bell Hunt. His sister Lucy was born the following year and his sister Gertrude in 1898. His father left the family in 1898, and he grew up with the dream that maybe someday they would again meet. He learned the story of his fathers' disappearance from his Grandmother Elizabeth Hunt, but she only knew that possibly he had gone south - where his sisters lived.

His mother moved to Minnesota with him and his sisters to keep house for her brather George. The following spring her father sold his farm in Iowa and also moved to Minnesota. He only remained a year and the family decided to move on to North Dakota to take up homesteads. His son Wm Valsen and Daisey remained in Iowa. In 1903 Daisey followed her Father to N. Dak. with the children. When her brother Georges home was ready she took Levi and Lucy and went to keep house for him.. Gertie remained at Grandpa and Grandmas' homestead. In 1908 George married and Daisey took up her own homestead, just a short way from her brother and father.(b) Gertie moved home to be with her brother, sister and mother.

Levi and his sisters attended the rural school. The school term was seven months, but frequently there was not five children of school age, so the school was not opened. Levi received only an elementary school education.

A lot of responsiblity fell on Levi as man of the house. His grandfather, William Hunt, his Uncles Sid and George and Graat Uncle Levi Hunt all stodd by and gave him help as he needed it. A good deal of the farming was done on a cooperative basis.

His sister Lucy married in 1913, and he also began to think of romance. However it wasn't until Feb. 1916 that he met the girl he eventually married. She was boarding with his Uncle Sid and teaching school, he had come by to help his Uncle haul hogs to Flasher. But the First World War came, and July 17, 1917 (c) he joined the navy; postponing any immediate plans. He wrote to the girl back home.

While he was in the service his sister Gertie married, and his mother sold the homestead and married Henry House. He was discharged June 1919(d), and returned to his Grandfathers farm. He didn't waste much time before proposing to his girl. It wasn't an exciting proposal. Actually his girl had presumingly come over to his Grandparents farm to visit his sister. He found her alone in the kitchen and asked her if she thought they could be happy together. After he explained that actually he was proposing she answered "yes", and he kissed her for the first time.

On Sept. 1. 1920 Levi William Leonard and Brenda Emma Partridge were married in Solon, N. Dak. (e). The first two years after they were married they lived with his Grandparents. Their first child was born June 27, 1921. It was a son they affectionately called Sonny Boy. He died that fall.

Brenda continued to teach school until after the birth of their second child, Jeannette Lucille, born July 19, 1922. By then Levis' Great Uncle Levi Hunt had moved to Grary, Indiana and they moved over onto his farm.

A third child arrived August 23, 1923. They named her Eldean Lynette. It was about this time that Levi began to have real trouble with the circulation in his legs. When his third daughter arrived on August 9, 1927 he spent many days lying on the bed entertaining little Arthus Jean. To add further to his problems the country was now in a state of depression and farm prices were lower then ever before. After his fourth daughter, Alice Noelle, was born on February 1, 1931 he moved his family to Mandan.

Levi began making frequent trips to the Veterans Hospital in Chicago, Illinois as the pain and ulceration of his left leg and foot increased. During the time of his service in the navy he had complained of discomfort so severe that at times he was unable to stand watch. This condition was diagnosed as Buerger's Disease that had been aggravated by the tight elastic in the legs of his Navy uniform. Gangrene continued to spread and in 1936 it was necessary to amputate his left leg and the great toe of his right foot. The healing was slow, and for several years he continued doctoring. The condition was service connected and he was granted a pension.

When he was finally able to work Levi supplimented his pension by selling Watkins products. He had a special hand stick put into his car to depress the clutch so he could drive. He also put wheels onto a stool so he could sit and cut hair. He had been trained as ships barber in the navy. He was able to work up a small business in his home, and in 1937 he took the state barbers examination at Jamestown, N.D. so he could work in one of the barber shops downtown.

Brenda went back to teaching in 1943, so they could buy a home. She qualified for this by taking a written examination for a Second Grade Elementary Certificate. This only enabled her to teach in the rural schools. Levi drove her back and forth every day if possible. This meant getting her there early during the winter months, so they could fire up the old coal stove to have the school warm before the first student arrived.

The home they bought was located at 1006 3rd Street So. West, Mandan, N.D.. Although they paid it off in a couple years, Brenda continued to teach until 1949. At this time Levi bought a barber shop in New Salem. However plans to sell the home and move to New Salem never materized because Levis' health began to fail. He sold the shop in New Salem, and when his health permitted he worked part time at a shop in Mandan. He loved being with people and enjoyed the contacts he made through barbering.

Levi never let the loss of his leg be a handicap. At the time of his death he had climbed up onto the roof of the Baptist Church. He was heping the minister, who was a neighbor, to put up the cross. The date was October 3, 1955.

DEATH CLAIMS

WINSLOW LADY.

Health Had Been Failing of Late.

Mrs. Sarah Sinclair passed away at her home in Winslow Sunday, at 11:30 A. M.

Mrs. Sinclair had been failing in health for some time, yet perseveringly kept about, attending to the home duties and cares until about two weeks previous to her departure when she gave up and was confined to her bed. Her going was very unexpected, the summons came and she quietly folded her hands to rest.

Sarah Hunt was born near Clayton, N. Y., July 19, 1853, and passed away Dec. 11, 1919, aged 66 years, 4 months and 23 days. She came with her parents from New York when about a year and a half old, and has resided in Winslow and vicinity ever since.

She was united in marriage to Valson Wire in 1870, who passed on later. To this union there were born three children—William, Elbert and Mary, the latter having preceded her mother to the unknown when near nine years of age.

She was united in marriage to Samuel Sinclair Nov. 27, 1884, to this union being born three children, one dying in infancy. She is survived by Leslie and Earl. Her kingdom was her home; her constant desire and effort to the last was to minister to those of the home nest. She was a devoted wife and mother, unselfishly seeking to help others. As a neighbor she was kind, thoughtful and helpful. She was a member for many years of the Order of the Eastern Star and the W. C. T. U., a true and helpful supporter to the principles of the temperance cause.

Early in life she became a member of the M. E. church at Christian Hollow. Her husband, Samuel Sinclair, and four children are left to mourn her loss: William and Elbert, of Winslow; Leslie, of Fremont, and Earl, of Leno. There are also 11 grandchildren, three sisters—Gertrude of Monroe, Wis.; Emma, Chambers of Nora, Ill., and Ida Linderman of Winslow; three brothers, William and Levi Hunt, of Elkhart, N. D., and Frank, of Winslow, besides many relatives and friends.

'Tis hard to break the tender cord,
When love has bound the heart;
'Tis hard so hard to speak the words—
—We must part.

But the hope to meet when life is past,
Shall heal the saddened heart at last.

The funeral was held Tuesday at 1 o'clock at the M. E. church, burial being made at Christian Hollow cemetery. Rev. O. A. Gage officiated.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to sincerely thank our friends for their many expressions of sympathy to us in our bereavement, the death of our dear wife and mother, and to express our appreciation of the floral tributes.

IN REMOVED.

Again there is no alarm at the outer door of our Chapter, this time calling sister Sarah Sinclair. To the dear ones whose home has been made desolate by the loss of a beloved wife and mother, whose hearts have an aching void which time and eternity alone can heal, we tender our heartfelt sympathy.

Resolved, That we hereby tender our heartfelt sympathy and condolences to the bereaved husband and family in this time of their great affliction.

Resolved, That as a token of respect for the memory of our late sister, the Chapter be draped in mourning for 30 days, that the memorial be read at the first regular meeting after the receipt of same, and spread in full upon the records of the Chapter.

Hunts to Observe 50th Anniversary

Celebrating 50 years of wedded life, Mr. and Mrs. Rollo S. Hunt of Woodinville will be guests at an open reception from 2 to 5 p.m. Sunday at the Woodinville Methodist Church.

Married Aug. 26, 1913 at Mandan, N.D., the Hunts remained there until 1936 when they moved to Woodinville. They have resided in the same block for the past 27 years. The couple has four children: Glen Hunt of Seattle, Rollo F. Hunt of Alderwood Manor, Mrs. Harold (Audrey) Johnson of Snoqualmie, and Mrs. Elmer (Lusetta) Nelson of Seattle. They also have 15 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

The reception arrangements are being made by Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Nelson, and it is expected that several relatives from North Dakota will travel west for the affair.

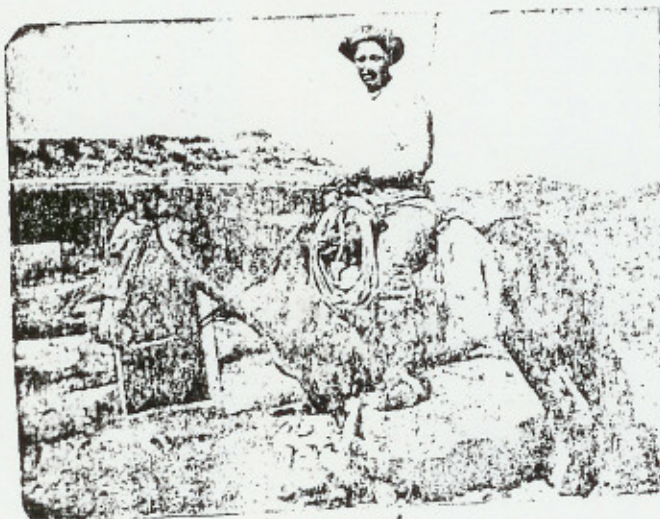

Hunt, 74, was a carpenter at the Houghton Shipyard until his retirement in 1946. Since that time, he has cleared several acres of land as well as remodeled numerous homes in the area. He is currently building a home for himself. Mrs. Hunt, 72, is an active baby sitter for her grandchildren as well as tending a large flower and vegetable garden.

Queried about their recipe for long married life, Mrs. Hunt remarked thoughtfully, "I believe it is all in how the couple was raised as children. If their parents trained them well when they were younger, they are bound to make mature married partners." Hunt added, "But don't think we haven't had our share of disagreements! It helps to clear the air and makes for a better marriage."
